

report No. 5]; from the second vice president, Miss Lillie Duke [officer's report No. 3]; from the third vice president, Miss Sallie Lou McKinnon [officer's report No. 4].

After announcements, the benediction was pronounced by Rev. H. M. North.

FRIDAY.

The services opened with Mrs. W. H. Speight in the chair. "Day is Dying in the West" was rendered by the choir, after which the thirty-third Psalm was read responsively. The council hymn, "Lead On, O King Eternal," was enthusiastically sung by the congregation; then Mrs. Spillman led in prayer, and the choir sang the Lord's Prayer as a response.

Owing to the absence of Mrs. Sue D. Swindell, the report of the corresponding secretary of the Foreign Department was read by Mrs. B. B. Adams and was adopted by the Conference. [Officer's report No. 8.]

Mrs. R. B. John read the report of the corresponding secretary of the Home Department, which was adopted. [Officer's report No. 9.]

Miss Lillie I. Duke, field secretary of the Conference, read the report of the year's work, and it was adopted. [Officer's report No. 10.]

Mrs. Lee Britt gave in a few minutes a most vivid picture of the work of both departments, making us feel that if all knew the need and the opportunity, more would respond with their prayers, their service, and their means.

Announcements for Saturday were followed by the doxology, and the congregation was dismissed with the benediction by Rev. H. M. North.

SATURDAY.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. R. B. John. Hymn 649 was sung and Mrs. John read a few verses from Psalm 137, after which she led the Conference in prayer.

Miss Lillie Stradley, returned missionary from Brazil, was presented to the Conference. She made a most interesting address on the customs and resources of Brazil. She spoke especially of its educational progress, and of the work done
